3.1. Content Selection and Presentation

The content of the short video is the foundation, and the form is the auxiliary. In a limited time, completing the best match of content and form is a prerequisite for creating popular videos.

3.1.1. Storytelling

Storytelling is a creative way led by Ziqi Li's video, which mainly promotes the plot by narrative techniques. There is a relatively rigorous and obvious time logic and causal relationship in her video content. Therefore, the plot is featured prominently in her video content.

3.1.2. Lifestyle Portrait
The content mainly shows some people's life states or behavior modes, and has a certain degree of idealization. Most of the videos of Li are ploughing and eating in nature and conforming to the season, just like the poem written by the ancient Chinese poet Yuanming Tao, which has turned the plain life of ordinary farmers into a fairyland. And this is the contemporary fast-paced life, people yearn for a leisurely, quiet and comfortable way of life.

3.1.3. Demo
In the video content of Ziqi Li, an obvious creative way is the demonstration, its most popular video series is "Osmanthus Nut Lotus Root Powder". From down to the lotus pond to how to boil lotus root powder, each video in the series shows the process of making lotus root powder.

In the collection of "When I Go Home, Be An Idle Man", Peng wears ancient costumes in the modern environment to show us the customs of different solar terms and different regions, plays the different roles of "tea women", "chivalry" and "gatekeeper", which shows the charm of traditional Chinese culture.

Known as the "grass machine", part of the video content is open the box, good things sharing, the other part of the beauty makeup recommendation, hand in hand teaching makeup. Among them, open the box sharing, most for the blogger himself in the life of love to use good things, as low as 10 yuan can bring convenience and fun to life products, deeply loved by everyone. In the beauty section, considering the needs of the audience, the bloggers are divided into two series: parity and lady. The audience range is wider, and the powder absorption ability is naturally stronger. In addition, bloggers will also teach you makeup hand in hand, with a universal formula. Not only solved how to buy, but also solved how to use, deeply sought after by everyone.

4. Case Analysis of Visual Communication Mode

4.1. Common Symbols in The Video
In the field of social semiotics, any kind of visual text spreads its meaning through three interrelated systems: information value, salience and framework. [5]

4.1.1. Frame
Ziqi Li is a more typical account representative. The content of the video is mostly cooking and farming, promoting traditional Chinese folk food, and the content is clearly expressed, let everyone at a glance. Take a video content as "making cold dishes to shoot cucumbers" as an example, recorded according to the chronological order, namely the objective order of the development of things. From picking, cleaning, changing the material form, eating, do not need the video in the time interspersed and staggered, but also can achieve the ideal effect. On the other hand, the application of the framework is mostly reflected in the time staggered, taking the "one wheat" released on May 19, 2020 as an example. From sowing to harvest, record the process of alternating the four seasons for a year, during which interspersed to do other content. A year later, the camera has grown mature wheat, a typical case 1 of the season. /
4.1.2. Style and Status

Delicate story account represents a cup of Americano and its matrix account of San Jin Qi Qi, although for the original cast, the style is actually different. The former is the up and down of the plot, mostly for the reversal of the story, the main content for the break up, emotional frustration, its starring acting natural, reveal true. The video content of the latter is different from the former, explaining the plain and simple "sweet love" in daily life. Each video is an independent story, reflecting the care and protection of the heroine in daily life, and the style is healing and warm. Although the two accounts have different styles, they have attracted a lot of attention, and the number of fans of the account is now the same. The comments section has more hot comments: lost lonely to see three gold seven seven, too excited to see a cup of American. To sum up, finding the right video style will play a key role in the story account.

4.1.3. Sound

Kaiyi Zhang’s video sharing content is mostly the soundtrack of the blogger. Different from other beauty accounts, Kaiyi Zhang ‘s irritating voice style and her refreshing "impatient" circle a lot of love, which is known as "Eldest brother" by fans. Voice is one of the intuitive ways of expression and the appeal of video has a direct relationship with sound. Beauty track is an easy to grow grass, strong fans sticky track, if the same products that bloggers choose to circle, if they want to work on the video content. Sound elements have become the most absorbing part of the video content of Kaiyi Zhang ‘s account. Its fast voice and the unique way of "irritable explanation" also make fans willing to suspend or collect screenshots, and the video completion rate is also higher than that of other peer accounts.

4.1.4. Private Perspective

The private perspective uses the psychological distance between the viewer and the object in the video to achieve the ideal effect. The typical representative account is Shiliu Peng elf.
